PLAY BALL!

Welcome!

Ernest Thayer's beloved 1888 poem about fictional baseball legend Casey and the town of Mudville springs vividly to life in the present day. When young K.C. moves to Mudville with her father from New York City, she struggles to fit in at her new school. But it's through her love of baseball that she finally connects: an avid ballplayer, K.C. whips the down-and-out local team into shape, leading them all the way to the championship game, where she learns that there are things even more important than winning...
